How has the AEFPP suppers and lectures made an impact to your school or organisation?

Thought provoking and inspiring
Oppoutunities for discussions in school

Raising standards for boys' and now this one on 'empowering girls' - have useful parallels to some of the children we teach

My first one but this one has given me food for thought around community engagement

This is my first visit and I will take the ideas / thoughts back to my school

Joining dots and making links

Helped develop a learning community

Really enjoyed Naomi's presentation

Made me think more widely about curriculum and education research

I am passionate about involving work based organisations with schools to celebrate hand/ heart and head

Dissemination of ideas - good and bad. Wider discussion

Comments

I will quote 'Failling (Primary) exams is not failing life!'

Great evening. Naomi was amazing please can she come back again.

More info would be involved in particular the Bedford Rhab App

Fascanating discussion, so interesting to hear these stories from Naomi
